

Brian Collin

Brian Collin has lived in Oliver's Battery since 1980. He lives with his wife Margaret in Compton Way near the school attended by all three of their children. Brian was elected to be Winchester City Councillor for the then single member ward of Oliver's Battery in 1986 and served this community for 24 years. He now holds no council office having retired in 2014. Brian is retired having worked in Computers and IT and information systems all his career in the public sector and private sector. Apart from having joined the Parish Council in 2018, Brian is also an elected governor of our local hospital foundation trust.
